*From 1955 General Minutes

HERE AND THERE WE LEARN THAT:

- The length of pastorates is important. Long-term pastorates reveal that:
  From 3,500 to 4,000 pastors move every year.
  Fair estimate of moving expense would be over a quarter million spent each year, to say nothing about the invisible liabilities from which the pastor's family suffers: interrupted school year, psychological damage done when the family must pull up stakes and take to the road every year or two. Chiefly the damage is to the program of the individual church, the individual pastor and the denomination. Dr. Ralph W. Sockman, pastor at Christ Church, New York City, according to the General Minutes holds the record of length of pastorate, now in his 40th year.
- The National Safety Council in its 1956 edition of "Accident Facts" states in 26 out of every 100 traffic fatalities last year, a driver or an adult pedestrian had been drinking. Not counting pedestrians, the Council figures show a steady increase in the proportion of drinking drivers involved in fatal accidents. In 1953 drinking drivers figured in 18 out of every 100 fatalities. In 1954 the proportion jumped to 20 out of every 100, last year it was 22 out of 100.

● ONE WONDERS which is the easier to obtain, service, or dollars, effort or money. Someone tells us that when it comes to asking people to attend meetings, get out and hustle, roll up their sleeves and go to work, about raising money for building a new church, hospital, playground, camp—the attitude of many is, "Here's my check, let George do it."

● Surveys show 21,000 deaths annually from accidental falls, and 38,300 from automobile accidents. About two thirds of falls are in and about the home. Up to age 75, more men than women die from accidental falls; but after that, this is reversed. More than half of the deaths from falls occur in persons of 75 or over. Children below 15 usually fall from windows, porches, trees and fences. Swimming and diving accidents take the lead in late teens, and and falls on stairs are significant factors from early 20s to late 60s.

- The Department of Agriculture reported that 18 religious and voluntary agencies sent 541,900,000 pounds of surplus dairy products and cotton-seed oil to needy persons in other countries during the twelve-month period ending last June 30, 1956.
—Washington Religious Report

- The Smithsonian Institution in Washington was the gift of an Englishman, James Smithson, who never saw America but willed his fortune to found "an establishment for the increase of and diffusion of knowledge among men."

- The 39 story secretariat building at the United Nations permanent headquarters in New York City provides offices for 3,400 persons of 63 different nationalities.

- Two out of every three American families have cars—a total registration of 62 million. These cars are driven an average of 9,400 miles a year each. Their number increases each year, and within ten years registrations are expected to hit 85 million.

- Crime increased 14.4% throughout the United States in the first half of 1956, the sharpest rise since World War II. A major crime is committed every 12.2 seconds, an estimated 2 million for 1956; one major crime committed for each 129 persons in the United States during first six months of 1956.—FBI, Director Hoover.

*Merged with Sou. Cal.-Ariz. and Cal.-Nev. Conferences as of June 18, 1956. The Statistics in Tables 2-3 and 4 are for the Conference Year 1955-56.

1955 Figures.

- Sociologist W. F. Ogburn shows in "American Journal of Sociology" that the standard of living has doubled since 1895. We are now able to buy over twice as much as then, because family yearly income has risen "in terms of the same purchasing power" from $1,728 to $3,902. So, we are twice as well off and have to work only about half as much as in the "good old days."

- In 1900 only 64% of our population got married. More than 80% now get married at some time in their lives. With college educated parents the average per family is now almost three children.

- The Federal Council of Churches presents the following information:
  "If I Marry a Roman Catholic"
  Where both parents are Protestant—6.8% break-up.
  Where both parents are Roman Catholic—6.4% break-up.
  Mixed marriages—15.2% break-up.

- It is said that highway construction of all kinds in the 13 years' period 1957-1969 will require 49 million tons of steel, 1,399 million barrels of cement, 128 million tons of bituminous material, and 9,170 million tons of aggregate, according to the bureau of public roads. At the peak of the program 442,000 men will be employed directly on highway construction jobs.

A LETTER FROM A CHURCH MEMBER TO HIS PASTOR.

Dear Pastor:

"In reply to your request to sign my pledge to the church for the coming year, I wish to say present condition of my bank account makes it almost impossible for me to say how much I will be able to give. My shattered financial status is due to the federal laws, state laws, mother-in-laws, corporation laws, county laws, city laws, sister-in-laws, brother-in-laws, and outlaws.

"Through all these laws, I am compelled to pay a business tax, amusement tax, head tax, street tax, school tax, gas tax, light tax, sales tax, carpet tax, income tax, food tax, furniture tax, and excise tax. Even what brains we have are taxed!

"I am required to get a business license, hunting license, fishing license, truck license, marriage license and dog license.

"Moreover, I am required to contribute to every society and organization which the genius of man is capable of bringing to life.

"For my personal safety, I am required to carry life insurance, property insurance, burglar insurance, accident insurance, business insurance, earthquake insurance, unemployment insurance, old age and fire insurance.

"My business is so governed it is No EASY MATTER TO FIND OUT who owns it. I am inspected, expected, suspected, disrespected, rejected, dejected, examined and reexamined, informed, required, summoned, fined, commanded and compelled until I must provide an inexhaustible supply for every known need of the human race.

"Because I am unable to donate to something or other, I am boy-cotted, talked about, lied about, held up, held down, and robbed until I am ruined.

"Nevertheless, I shall endeavor to give at least a TITHE of my earnings. As aforesaid, I do not know how I can afford it unless in the end I am forced to kill the wolf at the door and sell his hide to make up the difference.

"Faithfully yours,
I. M. Perplexed."

It happened at General Conference—Trying to get the floor a delegate couldn't get presiding Bishop Marvin A. Franklin's attention. "Mr. Chairman! Mr. Chairman!" he yelled. Finally, recognized by the bishop, he apologized for speaking so loudly. "Oh, that's all right," Bishop Franklin replied, "I come from hollering stock myself."

Rev. George H. Willett, 76, retired, West Wisconsin Conference, apropos of mention of a "presiding elder" in an issue of The Quarterly Messenger, writes that when Bishop Neely presided over the West Wisconsin Conference in 1908, he was very indignant about the substitution of the term "district superintendent" for "presiding elder," by the General Conference. He thought it had too much of secular connotation. So, when he read the appointments, at the close of the conference, he started thus, "Ashland District, James Irish, Section Boss!"

● By 1960 there will be more young people in America than at any time in history. Our school enrollment is increasing at the rate of 500,000 each year. One million more intermediates in 1960 than in 1950. What will the church do? Of the estimated 30,000,000 young people in America in 1956, fewer than ten million were related to the program of any religious body, Protestant, Catholic, or Jewish.

● Many retired people are unhappy simply because they have not prepared themselves for the future of leisure—no special interest, no hobby, no wide horizons for fun, laughter and music. Sir William Osler, one of the most famous of modern medical men said: "No man is really happy or safe without a hobby."

● Church attendance according to latest report set an all-time record in 1955. Approximately 49,600,000 persons, 49% of the total adult population, attended services in the average week during the year, according to the results of a sample poll made by the American Institute of Public Opinion.

● LOOK WHAT WE GET. In 1929, a married man with two children, and earning $3,000 a year, paid no income taxes. On $10,000, one paid $40, and on $25,000, $838. Today the $3,000 man pays $120, and the other comparable figures are $1,592 and $6,268. Lest anybody conclude that life was better in those days, however, let him reflect how much more he gets for his money now. Then there was no TVA, SEC, FOA, FNMA, AEC, FHA, FPC, FMB, CIA, SCC, CAB, CAA, CEA, Ex-Im Bank, FCC, FDIC, etc., etc.

STATISTICAL REVIEW

Statistical totals for the domestic Conferences at the time of unification, for the last year of each of the four quadrennia since, and for 1955. This summary, taken from the Secretary's report and the Statistician's and Treasurer's report of each Annual Conference, is presented for the purpose of giving certain information not appearing in the Condensed Tables also received from those Conferences. Complete report for 1940 not available.

Decision No. 122

Re: The Request of the Virginia Annual Conference for a Declaratory Decision Concerning the Required Appointment of a Preacher on Trial in Paragraph 341 of the 1952 Discipline.

DIGEST OF DECISION

The phrase, "who has been appointed in the regular itinerant work on circuits or stations" in Paragraph 341 of the 1952 Discipline must be interpreted as applying only to pastoral appointments to circuits or stations.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The secretary of the Judicial Council received the following communication:

> "This is to certify that the following resolution was adopted by the Virginia Annual Conference in regular session at Norfolk, Virginia, June 14, 1955:
> "The Virginia Conference of The Methodist Church, in annual session at Norfolk, Virginia, June 14, 1955, requests a declaratory decision from the Judicial Council (as defined in Paragraph 914, Section 8, of the 1952 Discipline) regarding admission into full connection, Paragraph 341, which reads in part as follows: 'A preacher on trial who has been appointed in the regular itinerant work on circuits or stations for two successive years from the time he was received on trial, and who has been elected to deacon's orders, etc.'
> "The question at issue regards the words, 'who has been appointed in the regular itinerant work on circuits or stations.' May this be construed as applying to preachers on trial who have been appointed for two full years after their admission to some institutional or connectional work of the Conference, such as Superintendent of the Children's Home, Conference Secretary of Youth Work under the Board of Education, or Director of a Wesley Foundation, and who meeting all other qualifications for admission into full connection may be received into the Conference without actually serving in a pastoral relationship?"
> (s) R. M. White, Secretary

Jurisdiction

Under paragraph 914 of the 1952 Discipline which grants an Annual Conference the right to request a declaratory decision on matters relating to Annual Conferences or the work therein, this request is properly before the Judicial Council for decision.

Analysis

Paragraph 341 of the 1952 Discipline reads as follows:

> "A preacher on trial who has been appointed in the regular itinerant work on circuits or stations, or as instructor in one of our institutions of learning, for two successive years from the time he was received on trial, and who has been elected to deacon's orders, may be admitted into full connection in the Annual Conference after he has given satisfactory evidence of his knowledge of the subjects covered in the first two years of the conference course of study, and after the examination before the conference prescribed in Paragraph 343 of this chapter; provided that this shall not be so construed as to prevent the admission into full connection of one, who while a student in any college or theological seminary of The Methodist Church approved by the authorized standardizing agency, or other evangelical theological seminary of equal rank, has been for the proper length of time regularly serving under the appointment or supervision of a district superintendent."

The question of the Virginia Annual Conference concerns how broad or narrow is to be the interpretation of "the regular itinerant work on circuits or stations."

It is true that the pastoral appointment to churches is the basic ministry of the Church. Here are the grass roots of faith and religious living. Here in the Quarterly Conference the organizational structure of The Methodist Church begins. Such appointments have been the traditional interpretation of "the regular itinerant work on circuits or stations." The Methodist Church has discovered, however, that in order to carry on its work effectively it must broaden its conception of the itinerant ministry. The General Conference, exercising its rights under the constitution, has been gradually broadening the appointive power of the episcopacy in the matter of "special appointments." Growing areas of inter-Church co-operation, the need of various kinds of institutions for resident chaplains, the development of special fields of ministry within the Church, are some of the factors that call for this broadening of appointive power.

So far, however, the General Conference has not broadened its legislation regarding the admission of preachers on trial into full connection. Paragraph 341 of the 1952 Discipline has not been changed. It still provides that to be admitted into full connection a preacher on trial must be serving in the regular itinerant work on circuits or stations, or as an instructor in one of our institutions of learning. To interpret this provision otherwise would constitute legislation on the part of the Judicial Council.

Decision

It is the decision of the Judicial Council that the phrase "regular itinerant work on circuits or stations" in Paragraph 341 of the 1952 Discipline may not be interpreted to include appointment to any institutional or connectional work of the Conference, but must be interpreted to apply only to pastoral appointments to circuits or stations.

Decision No. 123

Re: Ruling of Bishop Frederick B. Newell in the New York East Conference Regarding the Right of a Board of an Annual Conference to Present a Report Referring to Persons or Organizations in a Derogatory Manner Without Their Having Prior Notice.

DIGEST OF DECISION

An Annual Conference has the power to hear, discuss, amend, adopt or reject reports from Conference boards even though they contain material referring to persons or organizations in a derogatory manner without their having prior notice.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

At the session of the New York East Annual Conference in May, 1955, the Conference Board of Social and Economic Relations presented a report, part of which criticized a certain public official for his activities against a certain organization and a certain officer of that organization for alleged questionable activities. A lay member of the Conference requested a ruling from the presiding bishop on the question:

"May the Board of Social and Economic Relations present and have considered as a part of its regular committee report request for determinations or expressions approving or disapproving the character or intentions, motivations or orthodoxy of the private or professional conduct of State officials or citizens,

(a) who are not members of the Conference, or
(b) who have not received notice of the proposed action."

After due consideration and consultation Bishop Newell ruled as follows:

> "The four referenced paragraphs of the report of the Board of Social and Economic Relations of the New York East Annual Conference are ruled to be admissible for consideration, amendment if desired and for adoption."

Jurisdiction

In accordance with par. 909 of the 1952 Discipline the Judicial Council has jurisdiction in this case.

Analysis

Par. 22, Article II of the Constitution reads in part as follows:

> "The Annual Conference is the basic body in the church, and as such shall have reserved to it the right to vote on all constitutional amendments—and such other rights as have not been delegated to the General Conference under the Constitution with the exception that the lay members may not vote on matters of ordination, character and conference relations of ministers. It shall discharge such duties and exercise such powers as the General Conference under the Constitution may determine."

This gives the Annual Conference broad powers within the provisions of the Constitution of the Church.

Paragraph 649 under Section IV of the 1952 Discipline entitled the "Business of the Conference" reads in part as follows:

> "—After the statistical questions have been answered, let the boards, and committees of the conference make their reports for discussion and adoption . . ."

There is no specific limitation in the Discipline with respect to the right of an Annual Conference to consider, amend, adopt or reject reports submitted by its boards or commissions. It is the sole judge as to whether a report submitted by one of its boards or committees shall be considered, amended, adopted, or rejected. It is to be noted that this is not a question of wisdom or good taste as evidenced in the content of the report nor the effect of its adoption but rather of the right of the conference to consider it and act upon it as it desires.

There was no evidence submitted in connection with this case that the report presented by the Board of Social and Economic Relations violated any of the rules previously adopted by the Annual Conference respecting reports presented to it.

Decision

It is therefore the decision of the Judicial Council that the Board of Social and Economic Relations or any other board may present and have considered as a part of its regular committee report, request for determination or expressions approving or disapproving the character or intention, motivations or orthodoxy of the private or professional conduct of State officials or citizens,

(a) who are not members of the conference, or
(b) who have not received notice of the proposed action.

The ruling of Bishop Newell in this case is hereby affirmed.

Decision No. 124

Re: Ruling of Bishop Jose L. Valencia in the Session of the Philippines Annual Conference on the Election of Lay Delegates to the Philippines Central Conference.

DIGEST OF DECISION

A preacher in an Annual Conference cannot serve as lay delegate in a Central Conference.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

Dr. Juan Nabong came to the 1956 session of the Philippines Annual Conference as a lay member of the Conference from the Knox Memorial Church in Manila. On February 3, he was elected by the lay members of the Annual Conference as delegate to the Philippines Central Conference. The next day, February 4, Dr. Nabong was received on trial in the Philippines Annual Conference. After his admission on trial, the question was raised as to whether Dr. Nabong could remain a lay delegate to the Central Conference, and the bishop was requested to make a ruling on this question. Bishop Valencia based his ruling on the statement concerning delegates to the Central Conference in Paragraph 562 of the 1952 Discipline which states that "for the first meeting their qualifications shall be the same as provided in Paragraphs 24 and 25, and the Annual Conference shall determine the manner of their choice. Thereafter, their qualifications and the manner of election shall be determined by the Central Conference itself." After quoting the above sentences, Bishop Valencia ruled that the election of Dr. Juan Nabong as lay delegate to the Philippines Central Conference stands until the said Central Conference shall determine his qualifications and manner of election.

Jurisdiction

The ruling of Bishop Valencia is properly before the Judicial Council under Paragraphs 43(3) and 909 of the 1952 Discipline.

Analysis

As stated above, Bishop Valencia based his ruling on Paragraph 562 of the 1952 Discipline, which he interpreted as meaning that the Central Conference had the sole authority to pass upon the qualifications and manner of electing its members. In this connection attention is called to the fact that the Constitution in Paragraphs 23, 24 and 25 of the 1952 Discipline prescribes both the qualifications and manner of electing delegates to the Central Conferences. Said Paragraph 562 of the 1952 Discipline, therefore, cannot be interpreted as giving to the Central Conferences the unlimited right to determine the qualifications and manner of election of its members. Such an interpretation would be in violation of the Constitutional provisions above quoted, and would be void.

Said Paragraph 562, however, is subject to an interpretation that is not in conflict with the Constitutional provisions above set out. Apparently that paragraph was intended to give to the Central Conferences the right to inquire into the qualifications and manner of the election of its members to see if they meet the qualifications and were elected in the manner prescribed by the Constitution. That interpretation would not give to a Central Conference the right to seat a delegate who did not possess the constitutional qualifications, or was not elected in the manner prescribed by the Constitution.

The Judicial Council, in Decision No. 120, held that in determining the qualifications of a delegate elected to a Jurisdictional Conference his qualifications as such at the time the service was to be rendered was the controlling factor. The same rule would apply to membership in a Central Conference.

The Judicial Council assumes that Dr. Nabong intends to remain in the ministry. This assumption is based upon his request to be admitted into the Annual Conference on trial, and the action of the Annual Conference in admitting him into the Annual Conference on trial.

Decision

It is the decision of the Judicial Council that a preacher on trial in an Annual Conference cannot serve as lay delegate in a Central Conference. After being admitted on trial in the Philippines Annual Conference, Dr. Juan Nabong was no longer eligible to serve as lay delegate to the Philippines Central Conference. The ruling of Bishop Jose L. Valencia is therefore reversed.

Decision No. 125

Re: Ruling by Bishop Matthew W. Clair, Jr., on Paragraph 522 of The 1952 Discipline.

DIGEST OF DECISION

The Tennessee Annual Conference of the Central Jurisdiction with forty-one ministerial members is entitled to only one ministerial and one lay delegate to the Jurisdictional Conference. These two are the delegates elected to the General Conference.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

At the annual session of the Tennessee Conference of the Central Jurisdiction held at Gallatin, Tennessee, on June 24, 1955, Bishop Clair announced that the Conference would begin to vote for one ministerial and one lay delegate to the General Conference. He stated that in the light of the number of ministerial members, the Tennessee Conference is entitled to only one ministerial and one lay delegate to the General Conference, and that these two persons shall also be the delegates to the Jurisdictional Conference. Reserve delegates shall then be elected to serve as reserves both to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences. This interpretation was challenged and Bishop Clair was asked to rule on the interpretation of Paragraph 522 of the 1952 Discipline with reference to the election of delegates to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences. Bishop Clair said that Paragraph 522 of the 1952 Discipline states that there shall be one ministerial and one lay delegate to the Jurisdictional Conference for each 30 ministerial members of the Annual Conference, or a major fraction thereof. The Tennessee Conference has 41 members. Therefore, the Tennessee Conference is entitled to one ministerial and one lay delegate to the Jurisdictional Conference. Bishop Clair then asked that the Conference proceed to elect one ministerial and one lay delegate and delay further action until he could make an official ruling concerning the matter. The following item appears in the Journal of said Tennessee Conference for Saturday, June 25, 1955:

> "Bishop Clair stated that the Conference will proceed to vote on reserve delegates for, in the light of further research regarding his interpretation of Paragraph 522, his original interpretation is correct. Therefore, the two delegates elected yesterday will serve also as delegates to the Jurisdictional Conference. The reserves will serve for both Conferences."

Jurisdiction

From the items appearing in the official Journal of said Tennessee Conference we may assume that both the request for a ruling and the ruling of Bishop Clair were submitted in writing. Paragraph 909 of the 1952 Discipline states:

> "The Judicial Council shall . . . pass upon the decisions of law made by the bishops in Annual and District Conferences upon questions submitted to them in writing, and reported in writing to the Council with a syllabus of each case and affirm, modify or reverse them."

From the above it is apparent that the Judicial Council is authorized to take jurisdiction.

Analysis

Paragraph 7, Article III of the Constitution states:

> "The General Conference shall fix the ratio of representation in the General, Jurisdictional, and Central Conferences from the Annual Conferences, with the total ministerial membership in the Annual Conference as a basis, provided that each Annual Conference shall be entitled to at least one ministerial and one lay delegate in the General Conference and also in the Jurisdictional or Central Conference."

Paragraph 23, Article III of the Constitution states:

> "The Annual Conference shall elect ministerial and lay delegates to the General Conference and to its Jurisdictional or Central Conference in the manner provided in this section, Articles IV and V at the session preceding the General Conference. The persons first elected up to the number determined by the ratio for representation in the General Conference shall be representatives in that body. Additional delegates shall be elected to complete the number determined by the ratio for representation in the Jurisdictional or Central Conference, who together with those first elected as above shall be delegates in the Jurisdictional or Central Conference. The additional delegates to the Jurisdictional or Central Conference shall in the order of their election be the reserve delegates to the General Conference. The Annual Conference shall also elect reserve ministerial and lay delegates to the Jurisdictional or Central Conference as it may deem desirable."

Paragraph 501, Section I of the 1952 Discipline states in part:

> "The General Conference shall be composed of one ministerial member for every seventy ministerial members of each Annual Conference and one additional member for a majority fraction thereof and an equal number of lay members . . ."

Paragraph 502, Section 4 states:

> "The General Conference recommends to the Annual Conferences that the delegates to the General Conference be first elected on a separate ballot to be followed, after all the delegates to the General Conference have been elected, by balloting for delegates to the Jurisdictional Conference as reserves to the General Conference."

Paragraph 522 of the 1952 Discipline states:

> "The Jurisdictional Conference shall be composed of one ministerial delegate for every thirty ministerial members of each Annual Conference or major fraction thereof, and an equal number of lay delegates; provided that no Annual Conference shall be denied the privilege of two delegates, one lay and one ministerial."

We quote at length the above paragraphs from the Constitution and General Conference legislation because they all have a bearing on a proper interpretation of said Paragraph 522 in question.

In view of the above, the following facts are perfectly apparent:

First, the said Tennessee Conference with only forty-one ministerial members is entitled to the minimum representation in the General Conference of one ministerial and one lay delegate.

Second, these two delegates to the General Conference automatically become delegates to the Jurisdictional Conference.

Third, in order to have more than two delegates, one lay and one ministerial, to the Jurisdictional Conference, the Tennessee Annual Conference must have at least forty-six ministerial members.

Decision

In view of the fact that said Tennessee Annual Conference has only forty-one members, it is the decision of the Judicial Council that the ruling of Bishop

Matthew W. Clair, Jr., to the effect that the two delegates elected to the General Conference are the only delegates to the Jurisdictional Conference should be, and is hereby affirmed.

Decision No. 126

Re: Request of the General Conference Commission on the Structure of Methodism Overseas for a Declaratory Decision on the Question, "May a Central Conference Bishop Preside over the General Conference?"

DIGEST OF DECISION

A Central Conference bishop may preside over the General Conference.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The Judicial Council has received a request from the General Conference Commission on the Structure of Methodism Overseas for a Declaratory Decision on the question, "May a Central Conference Bishop preside over the General Conference?"

Jurisdiction

The Judicial Council has jurisdiction to render such declaratory decision under the provisions of subsection (2) of Paragraph 914 of the 1952 Discipline.

Analysis

In Paragraph 8, Article IV of the Constitution outlining the powers of the General Conference, number 11 reads as follows:

> "To select its presiding officers from the bishops through a committee, provided that the bishops shall select from their own number the president of the opening session."

Paragraph 36, Article III of the Constitution states in part:

> ". . . There shall be a Council of Bishops composed of all of the bishops of all the Jurisdictional and Central Conferences. . . ."

Paragraph 555 of the 1952 Discipline reads in part as follows:

> "A bishop elected by a Central Conference shall have the status, rights, and duties within his territory of a bishop elected by or functioning in a Jurisdictional Conference. . . ."

The amendment to Paragraph 20 (2), announcement of the adoption of which was made in the General Conference session on Wednesday, April 25, 1956, gives bishops of the Central Conferences the privilege of unlimited vote in the Council of Bishops.

Since the constitution does not limit the bishops who may preside over the General Conference to those elected by the Jurisdictional Conferences and since Central Conference bishops are members of the Council of Bishops with unlimited vote in the Council and since bishops elected by the Central Conferences have the status, rights and duties within their territory that bishops elected by Jurisdictional Conferences have, there is no legal hindrance to a Central Conference bishop being selected to preside over the General Conference.

Decision

It is therefore the decision of the Judicial Council that a Central Conference bishop may preside over the General Conference if selected in accordance with the provisions of the Discipline.

Decision No. 127

Re: The Election of Missionary Bishops.

DIGEST OF DECISION

The General Conference has authority to authorize a Jurisdictional Conference to elect a Missionary Bishop.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

Under date of April 19, 1956, the General Conference Commission on the Structure of Methodism Overseas requested the Judicial Council to render a declaratory decision in answer to the following question:

> "Can the General Conference authorize a Jurisdictional Conference to elect a Missionary Bishop?"

Jurisdiction

The Judicial Council has jurisdiction to render such declaratory decision under the provisions of subsection (2) of Paragraph 914 of the 1952 Discipline.

Analysis

Article I, Division three, of the Constitution of The Methodist Church (Paragraph 34 of the 1952 Discipline) reads as follows:

> "Paragraph 34, Article I. There shall be an episcopacy of The Methodist Church of like plan, powers, privileges and duties as now exists in The Methodist Episcopal Church and The Methodist Episcopal Church, South."

The Methodist Episcopal Church had missionary Bishops as a part of its plan of episcopacy. (Paragraphs 631-640 of the 1936 Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church). In fact a Missionary Bishop was authorized to be elected by the 1936 General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church to serve in Africa. (Page 407, Journal of the 1936 General Conference of that Church.) Reverend John M. Springer was thereupon elected and consecrated as such Missionary Bishop to Africa (pages 295 and 311, Journal of the 1936 General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church). Therefore, under the Constitutional provision above quoted (Paragraph 34, 1952 Discipline), Missionary Bishops are a part of the Episcopal plan for The Methodist Church.

A "Missionary Bishop" was defined in the 1936 Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church as follows:

> "Paragraph 631. A Missionary Bishop is a Bishop elected for a specified foreign mission field, with full Episcopal powers, but with Episcopal jurisdiction limited to the foreign mission field for which he was elected."

A "Missionary Bishop" is likewise defined in the Discipline of The Methodist Church. (Paragraph 441, 1952 Discipline.)

This is a recognition by the General Conference that there can be in The Methodist Church such an office as a Missionary Bishop. This recognition and assumption is supported by the Constitutional provision and statement of facts herein above set out.

The Judicial Council has heretofore held that there is no provision in the Constitution for the General Conference to elect a Missionary Bishop. (Decision No. 21.) Since there is no such specific provision, the General Conference, in the exercise of the "full legislative power over all matters connectional" given to it in Article IV of Division II of the Constitution (Paragraph 8 of the 1952 Discipline) has the right to authorize any Jurisdictional Conference in the Church to elect a Missionary Bishop for a specified foreign mission field.

Decision

In answer to the question submitted, as set out in the Statement above, it is the decision of the Judicial Council that the General Conference has the power to authorize a Jurisdictional Conference to elect a Missionary Bishop for a specified mission field.

Decision No. 128

Re: Whether the Liberia Annual Conference May Be Made a Part of the Central Jurisdiction.

DIGEST OF DECISION

The Liberia Annual Conference cannot be a part of the Central Jurisdiction.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

On April 30, 1956, the Commission on the Structure of Methodism Overseas requested the Judicial Council to render a declaratory decision in answer to the following question: "May Liberia Annual Conference have full participation in the Central Jurisdiction?"

Jurisdiction

The Judicial Council has jurisdiction to render such declaratory decision under the provision of subsection (2) of Paragraph 914 of the 1952 Discipline.

Analysis

The Constitution (Paragraph 4 (2) of the 1952 Discipline) reads in part as follows:

> "There shall be Jurisdictional Conferences for the church in the United States of America, with such powers, duties and privileges as are hereinafter set forth."

This clearly shows that jurisdictional conferences can be composed only of conferences and missions in the United States (including Puerto Rico, Alaska and the Hawaiian Islands) and Cuba. (Section VIII, Boundaries, of the Constitution, Paragraph 26 of the 1952 Discipline.)

The limitations of jurisdictional conferences to the United States is implemented by the fact that in the Constitution the Central Jurisdiction is confined to Annual Conferences, Mission Conferences and Missions in the United States of America. (Paragraph 26, supra.)

Decision

It is the decision of the Judicial Council that, under the Constitution, the Liberia Annual Conference may not have full participation in the Central Jurisdiction, or, in other words, it cannot be a part of the Central Jurisdiction.

Decision No. 129

Re: Whether or not a Minister in a Sister Church can be Given the Privileges of the Floor, Including the Right to Vote, by an Annual Conference of The Methodist Church.

DIGEST OF DECISION

An annual conference may grant the privileges of the floor to a minister in a sister church, but cannot grant to such minister the right to vote.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

On May 3, 1956, the Judicial Council received the following communication from the Council of Bishops:

"May 3, 1956

The Hon. J. Ernest Wilkins, Secretary
The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church
Minneapolis, Minnesota

My dear Mr. Wilkins:

The Council of Bishops of The Methodist Church in session in Minneapolis, Minnesota on May 2, 1956 voted to request a Declaratory Judgment upon the question submitted to the Judicial Council by Bishop Raymond L. Archer of the Singapore Area in his letter of May 1, 1956, as follows:

"The Methodist Church in England and in Australia are interested in sending missionaries from their respective churches to work in one of the Annual Conferences in the Southeast Asia Central Conference (i.e. The Singapore Area). In case we receive an ordained minister from these sister churches we would hope he might become a member of one of the Annual Conferences of the Singapore Area. However, since that person will be supported by his church in England or Australia it is his conviction that he should maintain his membership in his home conference."

The question is—could we accept such a missionary as an associate member of one of our Annual Conferences and ask that conference to grant such a person the privileges of the floor including the right to vote so long as he is under appointment to serve in that conference?

Very respectfully yours,
/s/ G. Bromley Oxnam
G. Bromley Oxnam"

Jurisdiction

Under subsection (1), Paragraph 914 of the 1952 Discipline, the Judicial Council has jurisdiction to render a declaratory decision on the question thus submitted to it by the Council of bishops.

Analysis

The right to vote in an annual conference is inherent only in the members of that conference. The Constitution of The Methodist Church (Section VII, Article I, Division two of the Constitution:

Paragraph 21 of the 1952 Discipline), reads as follows:

> "The annual Conference shall be composed of all the traveling preachers in full connection with it, together with a lay-member elected by each pastoral charge. The lay members shall be at least twenty-one (21) years of age and shall have been for the four years next preceding their election members of one of the constituent churches forming this union, or of The Methodist Church."

Article II of said Section VII of the Constitution, Paragraph 22 of the 1952 Discipline, reads as follows:

> "The Annual Conference is the basic body in the church, and as such shall have reserved to it the right to vote on all constitutional amendments, on the election of ministerial and lay delegates to the General and the Jurisdictional or Central Conferences, on all matters relating to the character and conference relations of its ministerial members, and on the ordination of ministers, and such other rights as have not been delegated to the General Conference under the Constitution, with the exception that the lay members may not vote on matters of ordination, character, and conference relations of ministers. It shall discharge such duties and exercise such powers as the General Conference under the Constitution may determine."

Article III of said Section VII of the Constitution (Paragraph 23 of the 1952 Discipline), reads in part as follows:

> "The Annual Conference shall elect ministerial and lay delegates to the General Conference and to its Jurisdictional or Central Conference. . . ."

It is hardly conceivable that an annual conference could grant to a nonmember the right to vote on these important matters. There is no provision in the Constitution or in the law of the Church for an associate member of an annual conference.

There is nothing in the Discipline of The Methodist Church that would prevent an annual conference from extending to a minister of a sister church the privileges of the floor, including the right to speak on matters pending before the conference; but to allow such minister the right to vote would be in violation of the Articles of the Constitution of The Methodist Church above set out. Only members of the Annual Conference can vote on the matters enumerated in the Constitution. By implication, it would be unconstitutional for an Annual Conference to grant the right to vote on any matter to a person not a member of the Annual Conference.

Decision

It is the decision of the Judicial Council that an Annual Conference may grant the privileges of the floor to a minister of a sister church but cannot grant to such minister the right to vote.

Decision No. 130

Re: Request from the Council of Bishops for a Declaratory Decision on Paragraph 160 of the 1952 Discipline Relating to the Election of Trustees by the Quarterly Conference.

DIGEST OF DECISION

A Quarterly Conference may adopt a policy for the election of trustees which is subject at all times to suspension or rejection by a majority vote of the Quarterly Conference.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The Council of Bishops meeting in Minneapolis, Minnesota on April 28, 1956, voted to request of the Judicial Council a Declaratory Decision on a question raised in a letter from Mr. C. E. Hines of Worthington, Indiana, to Bishop Richard C. Raines relative to the interpretation of Paragraph 160 of the 1952 Discipline. Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, Secretary of the Council of Bishops, states in his letter to the Judicial Council: ". . . The essential question, I think, is this: since Paragraph 160 of the 1952 Discipline does state, 'provided, however, that nothing herein shall be construed to prevent the election of a trustee to succeed himself', does a Quarterly Conference have the power to adopt a plan whereby the term of office for a trustee shall not exceed three years without a break of one year following the three year term before the trustee may be elected again?"

Jurisdiction

Under Paragraph 914, sub-section (1) of the 1952 Discipline the request of the Council of Bishops for a declaratory decision is properly before the Judicial Council.

Analysis

The Constitution, in Paragraph 31 of the 1952 Discipline reads as follows:

> "There shall be organized in each pastoral charge a Quarterly Conference composed of such persons and vested with such powers as the General Conference shall provide."

The General Conference in its legislation has declared in Paragraph 137 of the 1952 Discipline:

> "Within the pastoral charge (Paragraph 104) the Quarterly Conference is the basic body of control uniting it to connectional Methodism, and through the Quarterly Conference the pastoral charge functions in its relationship thereto. The Quarterly Conference shall therefore be organized in every pastoral charge, as provided in the Constitution (Paragraphs 31-32). The membership thereof, and its authority, powers, duties, and responsibilities shall be as hereinafter set forth."

In Paragraph 138 of the 1952 Discipline the General Conference has set forth the membership of the Quarterly Conference and in Paragraph 157 has declared that a Quarterly Conference so constituted

> "—shall be vested with power and authority as hereinafter set forth in connection with the property both real and personal of the said church, namely:—(4) To elect the trustees of the local church, unless otherwise provided (Paragraph 32) in harmony with the provisions of the Discipline."

Such provisions for the election of trustees are found in Paragraphs 159 and 160 of the 1952 Discipline. Paragraph 159 sets forth the number and qualifications of such trustees and Paragraph 160, after providing that the trustees shall be divided into three classes and setting forth the procedure for the nomination of trustees, continues in part:

> "—it shall elect, to take office at the beginning of the ensuing conference year, to serve for a term of three years or until their successors have been duly elected and qualified, the required number of trustees to succeed those of the class whose terms then expire; provided, however, that nothing herein shall be construed to prevent the election of a trustee to succeed himself."

The General Conference has stated that the Quarterly Conference is the basic body of control within a pastoral charge and has invested it with authority and power in the matter of the election of the trustees of a local church within the provisions of the Discipline.

The special provision in Paragraph 160 protects the right of the Quarterly Conference as the electing body, making certain that no construction shall be put upon the wording of the paragraph that would limit the right of the Quarterly Conference to elect new personnel in the classes of trustees or to elect trustees to succeed themselves if it so desires. The right to elect constitutes the right to make a choice. No class of trustees elected under Paragraph 160 is guaranteed re-election or has any preference right to be re-elected. Therefore, if a majority of the Quarterly Conference should desire to elect a different group for each class of trustees when their terms expire, they have that right; and that desire may be expressed in the minutes of a Quarterly Conference as a policy, provided such policy is subject at all times to suspension or rejection by a majority vote of the members of the Quarterly Conference present and voting at a duly authorized meeting of the Quarterly Conference.

Decision

It is the decision of the Judicial Council that the Quarterly Conference has the power to adopt a policy whereby the term of office for a trustee shall not exceed three years without a break of one year following the three year term before the trustee may be elected again provided such policy is subject at all times to suspension or rejection by a majority vote of the members of the Quarterly Conference present and voting at a duly authorized meeting of the Quarterly Conference.

May 3, 1956

Dissenting Decision

The undersigned very reluctantly finds it necessary to dissent from the decision in this case. Had the decision read that a Quarterly Conference has the right to adopt a policy of not re-electing trustees whose three year terms have expired until one year has elapsed, as a purely advisory policy and not a binding rule, this dissent would not have been necessary. The decision implies, however, that such a policy would be binding on a Quarterly Conference until such time as, by majority vote of the members of the Quarterly Conference present and voting at a duly authorized meeting of the Quarterly Conference, the policy is suspended or rejected. It is the clear implication that if the Quarterly Conference has adopted such a policy and if it has not voted to suspend or reject it, no trustee whose three year term had expired would be eligible for nomination or election until one year had elapsed. Our contention is that the Quarterly Conference has no such power under the Discipline.

The Constitution in Paragraph 31 of the 1952 Discipline as quoted in the decision invests the Quarterly Conference with such powers as the General Conference shall provide.

Paragraph 137 of the 1952 Discipline as quoted in the decision authorizes the organization of the Quarterly Conference as provided in the Constitution (Paragraphs 31-32). It provides that its membership, authority, powers, duties and responsibilities shall be as thereinafter set forth in the Discipline.

Paragraph 160 sets forth the following provisions for the election of trustees:

> "The members of the Board of Trustees shall be divided into three classes; and each class shall, as nearly as possible, consist of an equal number of members. At the fourth or final meeting of the Quarterly Conference for the Annual Conference year, upon nomination by the Committee on Nominations (Paragraph 145, Section 1), of which the pastor shall be chairman (or if the committee fails to nominate, upon nomination of the pastor), or from the floor, it shall elect, to take office at the beginning of the ensuing conference year, to serve for a term of three years or until their successors have been duly elected and qualified, the required number of trustees to succeed those of the class whose terms then expire; provided however, that nothing herein shall be construed to prevent the election of a trustee to succeed himself, ..."

Nowhere in this paragraph is there provision for the rotating of trustees so that at least one year must elapse after the expiration of a three year term before they can be elected again. On the contrary, the definite statement is made that the plan of arranging the trustees into three classes, each to serve for three years, shall not be construed so as to prevent the election of a trustee to succeed himself. Neither is there in this paragraph any limitation imposed upon the eligibility of a trustee to be nominated and elected because of the length of time he has previously served continuously. If the General Conference had intended any such limitations, it would have provided for them.

The basic question then is this: Can the Quarterly Conference impose limitations upon the eligibility of a trustee for nomination and election because of the length of previous continuous service, when the Discipline which contains the legislation of the General Conference to which the Constitution gives the power to provide for these matters contains no such limitations?

The answer is that it cannot. Therefore, a trustee is eligible for nomination and re-election without the lapse of one year following the expiration of his three year term even though the Quarterly Conference has adopted a policy of rotation and whether or not that policy is suspended or rejected.

Because of the reasons stated above and because of the importance of the office of trustees of a local church who sometimes become involved in legal matters affecting the property rights of a church, we find it necessary respectfully to dissent from the decision in this case.

INDEX OF ANNUAL CONFERENCE MINISTERIAL MEMBERS

The following is a list of the Conference Members including Probationers, whose present relation to the Church is recorded in this volume. The figure before each name represents the year in which the man was received into full Membership. Where the figure is omitted there is a question about the exact year and the matter is being investigated. The star (★) indicates that the name will not appear in the General Minutes next year, the man having been removed by death, discontinuance, location, withdrawal, or expulsion. Boldface type indicates that the preacher is retired. The superior figure in the page number is the column in which the name appears. The editor of the General Minutes will appreciate information which will increase the completeness and accuracy of this record. Address him, The Statistical Office, 740 Rush St., Chicago 11, Ill.
